

FORTE INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE ASSOCIATION

Learn About New Cultures and Languages

Hosting a foreign exchange student can be a heart-warming and eye-opening experience. Watch your family grow with the addition of a young student from another country. His/her presence in your home will certainly help to build future relationships between our country and their country. Please take advantage of this exciting opportunity to learn about a foreign culture while sharing your own culture as well. Being a host parent does not just mean providing a home, but facilitating a rich and rewarding experience for everyone involved.

As a host parent, some of the benefits include:

- Learning about a new culture different from your own
- Teaching a foreign person about America
- Receiving a monthly tax deduction
- Providing your children and family with an international experience from your own home
- Creating a life-long relationship with your new host son or host daughter

Our Students are:

- High school aged and Capable English speakers
- Eager to learn about America and American culture
- Insured with emergency and general health care coverage and come with their own spending money

Who Can Participate?

- All families...(single (mother/father), married/unmarried, young children, adult children or no children ....etc.)

Interested?
